Report on Tree Plantation Campaign

Place – Surrounding areas of Vaishali Buddhvihar

Date & Time – 16/07/2019, 9.30 a.m.

As a part of social forestry, Govt. of Maharashtra has undertaken mission to plant 33 crores of trees on barren land to create environmental balance and awareness among the people. As a part of this mission our college has planted trees surrounding areas of Vaishali Buddhvihar which is situated nearby our college, on 16th July 2019.

All the teachers, NSS volunteers, NCC cadets and administrative staff participated in this campaign. On this occasion, Hon'ble, Industrialist shri. Vinodbhau Ghodawat, Chairman of School Committee, Prin. Dr. G. J. Fagare and other members of governing council were present for the campaign of plantation. All the students and teachers were participated in it and planted 55 trees.

However, we have also planted 100 trees during last two years in the same area.
